MANHATTAN U.S. ATTORNEY CHARGES 30 MEMBERS
OF BRONX DRUG TRAFFICKING CREWS WITH DISTRIBUTING
HEROIN AND CRACK COCAINE

*Undercover Officers Made Approximately 150 Narcotics Purchases
In Six-Month Period*

PREET BHARARA, the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, DELANO REID, the Special-Agent-in-Charge of the New York Division of the U.S. Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms ("ATF"), and RAYMOND W. KELLY, the Police Commissioner of the City of New York ("NYPD"), announced today the unsealing of six Indictments charging 30 members of drug trafficking crews operating in and around the Butler and Webster public housing projects (the "Butler Houses" and the "Webster Houses"), located in the Bronx, New York, with distributing heroin and crack cocaine. During the six-month investigation, federal and local law enforcement agencies, working with the Manhattan U.S. Attorney's Office, used undercover officers to infiltrate these drug crews.

Manhattan U.S. Attorney PREET BHARARA said: "The impact of illegal narcotics on the residents and the neighborhoods where they are peddled cannot be overstated. With today's arrests, it is our hope that the quality of life in at least two New York City communities will improve. Together with our law enforcement partners, our commitment to cleaning up the streets of New York for its citizens ranks among our highest priorities."

ATF Special Agent-in-Charge DELANO REID said: "The individuals arrested today have preyed upon the Webster and Butler Housing Projects for the last time. ATF's efforts, along with our partners', to ensure a safe and drug free environment will continue throughout the city and hopefully the residents of both Housing areas are a little closer to that reality today."

NYPD Commissioner RAYMOND W. KELLY said: "Drug traffickers breed addiction and draw violent crime into our neighborhoods. I applaud the NYPD's Bronx Narcotics Bureau and the U.S. Attorney's Office for putting these dealers out of business and behind bars, and helping improve the quality of life for residents of the Butler and Webster Houses in the Bronx."

The allegations contained in the six Indictments announced today are described in greater detail below.

U.S. v. Rentenze Farris, et al.

This Indictment charges RENTENZE FARRIS, SAMUEL SMITH, LINWOOD HARPER, WILBERT ROBERTS, DARRELL DECKARD and DYMERE GRAHAM with conspiring to distribute, and to possess with intent to distribute, more than 280 grams of crack cocaine. Each defendant is also charged with at least one substantive count of distributing, or possessing with the intent to distribute, a quantity of crack cocaine. This crew operated primarily out of an apartment located at 1270-72 Webster Avenue, one of the apartment buildings inside the Webster Houses. During the course of the investigation, NYPD officers made approximately 22 undercover purchases of crack cocaine from members of the crew.

The case is assigned to U.S. District Judge LAURA TAYLOR SWAIN.

U.S. v. Darren Ferdinand, et al.

This Indictment charges DARREN FERDINAND, ISIAH WILLIAMS, LAWRENCE BRUCE, DAVID WILLIAMS, QUINN ROBINSON, RONALD WILLIAMS, GIOVANNI CALDERON and JORGE MARRERO with conspiring to distribute, and to possess with intent to distribute, more than 28 grams of crack cocaine. Each defendant is also charged with at least one substantive count of distributing, or possessing with the intent to distribute, a quantity of crack cocaine or a quantity of heroin. In addition, CALDERON and RONALD WILLIAMS are also charged with distributing a quantity of heroin. This crew operated in the vicinity of 168th and 169th Streets and Webster Avenue, adjacent to the Webster Houses. During the course of the investigation, undercover officers made approximately 49 undercover purchases of narcotics from members of the crew.

The case is assigned to U.S. District Judge PAUL G. GARDEPHE.

U.S. v. James Butler, et al.

This Indictment charges JAMES BUTLER, KEITH HOLLOWAY, KENNETH BARNO, REGINALD RANDOLPH and GLENN COOPER with conspiring to distribute, and to possess with intent to distribute, more than 28 grams of crack cocaine. Each defendant is also charged with at least one substantive count of distributing, or possessing with the intent to distribute, a quantity of crack cocaine. This crew operated in the vicinity of 169th and 170th Streets and Webster Avenue, adjacent to the Butler Houses. During the course of the investigation, NYPD officers made approximately 18 undercover purchases of crack cocaine from members of the crew.

The case is assigned to U.S. District Judge JOHN G. KOELTL.

United States v. Jerry Adams, et al.

This Indictment charges JERRY ADAMS, DAQUAN PALMER, ALWYN PALMER, DEVILL HOGUE, CHRISTOPHER RODRIGUEZ, BARRY CRAWFORD, JONATHAN HESTER and HASSAN SHANE with conspiring to distribute, and to possess with intent to distribute, a quantity of heroin. In addition, ADAMS, HOGUE, RODRIGUEZ, HESTER, and CHANNON CAMPBELL are charged with conspiring to distribute, and to possess with intent to distribute, more than 28 grams of crack cocaine. Each of the nine defendants is also charged with at least one substantive count of distributing, or possessing with the intent to distribute, a quantity of crack cocaine or a quantity of heroin. This crew operated primarily in the vicinity of a store located at 1445 Webster Avenue, adjacent to the Butler Houses. During the course of the investigation, NYPD officers made approximately 16 undercover purchases of crack cocaine from members of the crew and 33 purchases of heroin.

The case is assigned to U.S. District Judge P. KEVIN CASTEL.

U.S. v. Joseph Finch & U.S. v. Pierre Holmes

JOSEPH FINCH and PIERRE HOLMES are each charged in two separate Indictments with distributing, and possessing with intent to distribute, crack cocaine on multiple occasions between March 2011 and August 2011.

U.S. v. Finch is assigned to U.S. District Judge ROBERT P. PATTERSON. U.S. v. Holmes is assigned to U.S. District Judge RICHARD J. HOLWELL.
