Suspects Arrested in Car Wash Homicide

8/2/22

LK22-023248

Four suspects have been arrested in connection with a Lakewood shooting that left one man dead.

On 7/31/22, Lakewood Police were called to the area of W. Colfax Ave. and Sheridan Blvd. for reports of a shooting at a car wash at 1431 Sheridan Blvd. When police responded they found the victim, an adult Hispanic male, deceased in the driver side of his vehicle. The victim has been identified as 27-year-old Ramon Castro Contreras of Denver.

On 08/01/22, DPD Sort located the involved vehicle of the homicide which led to the arrest of two suspects – one adult male and one juvenile.

On the night of 8/23/22, one adult male and one teenage male were apprehended and arrested in connection with this murder on the 4000 block of Andes Way in Denver.

Due to the nature of this and other on-going investigations, names and photos of suspects are not being released at this point. All suspects believed to be involved in the homicide have been contacted with four charged in relation to the murder.

These arrests could not have happened without the outstanding teamwork of the Lakewood Police Department, Denver Police Department, Aurora Police Department, DEA, ATF, Department of Corrections Fugitive Unit, U.S. Marshals and CMATT.
