Dear Barbara Terrell,

It's time that Obama administration does more to crack down on the gun smuggling carried out by the Mexican drug cartels.

I strongly support the ATF's proposal to require dealers along the border to report bulk sales of assault rifles, just like they already do with handgun sales. The ATF must use its authority to collect this information and better enforce the laws already on the books.

With more than 30,000 people already murdered in cartel wars, this is an emergency that demands our government's immediate attention.

Subject: December 17, 2011 Comments Regarding Reporting on Firearms Sales

Dear Ms. Terrell:

As you are aware, American citizens like me that adhere to the Constitution of the United States of America and cherish our second amendment rights are against this proposed legislation that will require the information regarding certain semi-automatic rifle sales to be sent to the BATFE.

At the present time, I understand this legislation is being proposed for certain states along the southern border of the U.S. like Texas and New Mexico but as always, once the rights of the people are trampled, they continue to extend those regulations and laws to include all states and all citizens in America.

At 54 years of age I am disgusted with federal agencies like the BATFE and our legislators that continually attack our rights and freedoms under the Constitution and the Bill of Rights annually when it is spelled out in plain English that these rights shall not be infringed, and Congress shall make no laws that will restrict or prohibit these areas of liberty and freedom.

In the 1960's through the 1980's, this kind of nonsense legislation was a semi-annual problem. Then it increased to an annual event until the late 1990's where it is a constant, non-stop assault against the American people that live by the law the way it was written and now must continually defend it on a daily basis.

The discussion and debate for all of these issues from energy independence to gun rights is over. Millions of Americans like me are looking for candidates that promise not to propose new legislation, but to repeal it. I personally think that as we cut our national budget that has become the joke of our nation due to worthless politicians, we should repeal one federal law or regulation for every $100,000.00 cut from the budget.

Overlapping laws and legislation that undermines America's liberty and freedoms and overlaps existing laws that are not enforced will no longer stand with the American people. Yes, we are seeking dedicated Americans that either want to live in America the way it was founded, or leave for the country of their choice and don't let the door knob hit them on the way out.

How disgusting is it to hear politicians in Washington praise the people over in Egypt for standing up against a tyrannical government and with the same breath condemn people from the Tea Party movement that came together in a peaceful assembly as provided for under the Constitution to voice and show their displeasure with the direction Washington D.C. is taking.

There were no Molotov Cocktails or rocks thrown during the Tea Party gatherings. No burning of flags or images of the President disgraced during their assembly. But they were scorned and denounced as Nazi's and traitors to America for daring to do the right thing the right way as is their right to do under our Constitution and a Democracy.

Bottom line, millions of Americans like me are looking to fire all of the well paid government agency heads and politicians in Washington D.C. and we will continue to fire and hire until we get people in our agencies and offices that respect the Constitution and themselves enough to either love America as it is and should be, or leave it for the land of their choice. Freedom and liberty cannot co-exist with tyranny. Sooner or later, one must be kicked out.

The federal government is limited in scope and power by the Constitution and we will see our land returned to those earlier days when personal responsibility was a requirement to live here and politicians were part time, underpaid, and worked a real job to make their own living.

Sincerely,

It's time that Obama administration does more to crack down on the gun smuggling carried out by the Mexican drug cartels.

I strongly support the ATF's proposal to require dealers along the border to report bulk sales of assault rifles, just like they already do with handgun sales. The ATF must use it's authority to collect this information and better enforce the laws already on the books.

With more than 30,000 people already murdered in cartel wars, this is an emergency that demands our government's immediate attention.

Subject: Please Oppose the BATFE's proposal to report sales of certain rifles

I respectfully request that you oppose the regulation described in the "Notice of Information Collection Under Review: Report of Multiple Sale or Other Disposition of Certain Rifles."

This is an unnecessary regulation and is not allowed under Federal law. Title 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(3)(A) does not grant the authority to provide for registration of multiple purchases of firearms other than for handguns.

As importantly, the regulation contains no provision for the destruction of the collected information, and therefore is not legal under Title 18 U.S.C. § 926(a).

This unnecessary and extra-legal proposal should NOT be approved.

Sincerely,

Karen M. Field

It's time that the Obama administration does more to crack down on the gun smuggling carried out by the Mexican drug cartels.

I strongly support the ATF's proposal to require dealers along the border to report bulk sales of assault rifles, just like they already do with handgun sales. The ATF must use its authority to collect this information and better enforce the laws already on the books.

With more than 30,000 people already murdered in cartel wars, this is an emergency that demands our government's immediate attention.

Dear Barbara,

I live in Texas, and I am an ordinary person who like most Texans like to hunt and fish. It is a family sport most of the time. And anytime you can get families together and enjoying themselves, is a good thing. We put food on our tables and harm no one, and we give thanks to God and the animal for providing us with sustenance, so what is wrong with that? Why does the government want to take that away from us? I am tired of the rotten apples in the bunch spoiling it for the rest of us.

Our rights as Americans are being violated when the ATF wants us to register our long rifles just keep an eye on a few. There are hundreds of thousands of us citizens who will be hurt and exploited because of this new law they want.

I am against this law, and pray this does not get voted in.

Respectfully yours,

Ms. Terrell, I am going to be very brief in this email, as you have more important things to tend to I am sure. After reading about the ATF requiring "certain" firearms sales to be reported under the terms listed in the information I received, I am against it. I believe this is unnecessary action, and it is a pointless waste of everyone's time. Please tell me that we are devoting our country's resources to better things than this. I say this with true sincerity, as I am both a police officer, as well as a US Navy Veteran, I believe that my opinion counts.

Sincerely,

Dear Barbara Terrell,

It's time that the Obama administration does more to crack down on the gun smuggling carried out by the Mexican drug cartels.

I strongly support the ATF's proposal to require dealers along the border to report bulk sales of assault rifles, just like they already do with handgun sales. The ATF must use its authority to collect this information and better enforce the laws already on the books.

With more than 30,000 people already murdered in cartel wars, this is an emergency that demands our government's immediate attention.

Barbara Terrell,

Please keep in mind when considering your proposal to report long gun sales that your bureau does not have the authority to do so. According to the December 17, 2010 "Notice of Information Collection Under Review: Report of Multiple Sale or Other Disposition of Certain Rifles" and other reports, your bureau is implicitly authorized to request reports of multiple handgun purchases only.

Regards,

Karl Thompson

Dear Barbara Terrell,

I wanted to comment on the proposed legislation for reporting Long Gun sales in California. I am a resident in California and want to say that I disapprove very much. These new laws will only burden legal citizens of the US and not solve any problems with guns being smuggled across the Mexico American border, if there are any. A simple solution to such problems is to increase our border patrol and prosecute illegal activity rather than make more laws for the American citizen to be encumbered by. Thank you for hearing me on this issue, because I find that it is my duty as a citizen of the United States and a resident of California to let you know how I feel about this legislation.

Sincerely,

It's time that the Obama administration does more to crack down on the gun smuggling carried out by the Mexican drug cartels.

I strongly support the ATF's proposal to require dealers along the border to report bulk sales of assault rifles, just like they already do with handgun sales. The ATF must use its authority to collect this information and better enforce the laws already on the books.

With more than 30,000 people already murdered in cartel wars, this is an emergency that demands our government's immediate attention.

It's time that the Obama administration does something to crack down on the gun smuggling carried out by the Mexican drug cartels and sanctioned by profiteering US gun dealers. Otherwise you might as well hang a sign on the White House "Powered by the NRA"!

I strongly support the ATF's proposal to require dealers along the border to report bulk sales of assault rifles, just like they already do with handgun sales. The ATF must be allowed to use its authority to collect this information and be able to enforce the laws already on the books.

I know that the Republicans do not want to fund anything and that they see the gun smuggling problem as all with Mexico and the Mexican drug cartels; however, you still have to ask those near-sighted, corporate pawns of greed for the money to do the correct thing for this country. GOOD LUCK!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

We need to stop furnishing arms...period. The assumption that gun dealers are registered and honest is faulty. The assumption that any arms sold in this country are legally noted is faulty.

The assumption that assault rifles are used for the betterment of any society is faulty. This impending legislation is a mere first step in what needs to be wholesale revamping of gun laws.

I was once asked by a lady visiting if I had a gun in the house. I said I did. She said 'Well I certainly hope it isn't loaded!' To which I said, of course it is loaded, it can't work without bullets!' She then asked, 'Are you that afraid of someone evil coming into your house?' My reply was, "No not at all. I am not afraid of the house catching fire either, but I have fire extinguishers around, and they are all loaded too".

WHERE ELSE BUT AMERICA

ONLY IN AMERICA

We are the only country where we have homeless without shelter, children going to bed without eating, elderly going without needed meds, and mentally ill without treatment and yet we have benefits for the people of Haiti on 12 TV stations, ships and planes lining up with food, water, tents, clothes, bedding, doctors and medical supplies. Imagine if we gave ourselves the same support that we give other countries. I feel bad for them, but I wonder who cares about America .

99% of people won't have the guts to forward this.

It's time that Obama administration does more to crack down on the gun smuggling carried out by the Mexican drug cartels.

I strongly support the ATF's proposal to require dealers along the border to report bulk sales of assault rifles, just like they already do with handgun sales. The ATF must use its authority to collect this information and better enforce the laws already on the books.

With more than 30,000 people already murdered in cartel wars, this is an emergency that demands our government's immediate attention.

Dear Barbara Terrell,

It's time that the Obama administration does more to crack down on the gun smuggling carried out by the Mexican drug cartels.

For what it may cost this country we need a stiff life sentence for anyone stepping out and selling guns outside the law.

The next paragraph shouldn't even allow this sort of gun trade. It allows gun dealers to put automatic guns in criminals hands and shoot at our police. What the f--K are you guys cooking in the White House? I support gun control, by taking the guns away from Jeo Publick.

It's time that Obama administration does more to crack down on the gun smuggling carried out by the Mexican drug cartels.

I strongly support the ATF's proposal to require dealers along the border to report bulk sales of assault rifles, just like they already do with handgun sales. The ATF must use its authority to collect this information and better enforce the laws already on the books.

With more than 30,000 people already murdered in cartel wars, this is an emergency that demands our government's immediate attention.

Please consider the intent of the constitution to keep the freedoms to purchase and use guns. Where I live, in the country. It is necessary to protect ourselves and our domestic livestock from predators of all kinds. We need to be able to purchase guns and ammunition when the sales occur, and as the seasons dictate, not as a calendar and the government decide. This could cause us to not have the right type of guns defend our property and ourselves.

Please OPPOSE the "Notice of Information Collection Under Review: Report of Multiple Sale or Other Disposition of Certain Rifles."

This is an unnecessary regulation and is not allowed under Federal law. Title 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(3)(A) does not grant any such registration of multiple purchases of firearms, except for handguns.

The regulation contains no provision for the destruction of the collected information, and therefore is not legal under Title 18 U.S.C. § 926(a).

Laws do matter and this unnecessary and extra-legal proposal must NOT be approved.

I understand the need to keep guns out of the the hands of criminals and those with a few screws loose.

I live in a poor section of northeast Ohio, just outside of Cleveland, Ohio proper. The people with guns don't buy them in a way that will be reported to ATF.

Please, use your resources and our tax dollars to close the real loopholes. Please, keep guns off the streets where they are used to intimidate and hurt or kill people. Guns on the streets support the drug dealers and other criminal elements.

Law abiding and tax paying citizens who wish to target shoot, hunt or practice skills for self defense of their home and family are the ones whose names will be collected. Any others it catches will be lost in the data base. Nuts will be needles in the hay stack.

Please continue your work keeping guns out of the hands of those who hurt people, enforce illegal activities, etc. Many innocents die or are hurt.

Thank you for working to protect the peace and supporting the Constitution in our United States.

Greetings;

I live in Seattle, WA. I am distressed that the ATF has the time and resources to try and impose more gun control when so other more serious problems exist on our southern borders.

As a retired 30+ year veteran of the Seattle Police Department I am constantly amazed at how seemingly responsible people in power abuse it and lose sight of the real goal of public protection.

Please reconsider the new law regarding registration of long rifles.

Subject: December 17, 2010 "Notice of Information Collection Under Review: Report of Multiple Sale or Other Disposition of Certain Rifles."

Dear Barbara Terrell,

Please accept my comment on the above subject. I have read said Report. I do disagree on the action to report sales to the government of any purchase of any legally acquired firearm for personal use or collection. I have a family of 8 including myself. All of us are avid shooters. I do have a problem with any government agency meddling in my affairs if I happen to come across a package deal or if I see a few guns I'd like to acquire for myself or my family in one transaction. I save for my hobbies. I am appalled at the attempt of any individual or agency that continues to harass gun owners. No one introduces bills to register knives when someone kills others with blades. I say stop introducing any anti-gun bill and start introducing bills that condemn illegal immigrants using them or stop organized crime syndicates from using them. Give them harsher sentences and make them the criminals of which they are.

Stop making our lives harder by putting the blame on us.

The new requirement is also self-incriminating. If I buy my firearms in a way that is against the proposal, I may be a criminal or a suspect in violation of a BATF requirement. I live my life in a humble fashion. I would be devastated if I violated any government imposed rule and have officers arrest me for such violation if they feel I am an endangerment to society. Mistakes by BATF is not unheard of where innocent citizens are arrested, detained, or killed because of mis-identification.

If I am legally purchasing any firearm. It shouldn't matter how many. Leave me alone.

Sincerely,

Keenan E. Lee, Capt, USAFRM (medically retired)

Dear Barbara

I know the incident in Tucson has sparked the age old debate about guns a tragic criminal act no doubt. The fact is that all the laws and regulations only affect the law abiding you of all people should know that. One more regulation law or restriction only serves to make it more restrictive on us law abiding citizens who own guns. By definition a criminal does not and will not obey the law. Please use you wisdom and judgment not your heart or a knee jerk reaction to in act another restriction on an already over restrictive portion of our life.

Dear Barbara Terrell,

It's time that the Obama administration does more to crack down on the gun smuggling carried out by the Mexican drug cartels.

I strongly support the ATF's proposal to require dealers along the border to report bulk sales of assault rifles, just like they already do with handgun sales. The ATF must use its authority to collect this information and better enforce the laws already on the books.

With more than 30,000 people already murdered in cartel wars, this is an emergency that demands our government's immediate attention.

Re: December 17, 2010 "Notice of Information Collection Under Review: Report of Multiple Sale or Other Disposition of Certain Rifles."

Dear Ms Terrell,

I suggest that this matter of long gun reporting be put to rest, as it now appears to be naught but a red herring devised to deflect attention from your agency's own illegal actions.

There seems to be much evidence piling up which points to a shameful coverup on the fifth floor of the BATFE headquarters, concerning the murder of Border Agent Brian Terry by a shooter wielding an AR-15 that the BATFE allowed to be sold and subsequently 'walked' across the Mexican border.

For your convenience, I have provided this useful and informative link:

<http://www.examiner.com/gun-rights-in-national/a-journalist-s-guide-to-project-gunwalker>

If you don't already know, this gun was one of many, possibly among several thousand, that were apparently used in a misguided attempt to pad BATFE statistics and win Congressional funding. The evidence in the hands of Sen. Grassley and others appears to be overwhelming, and, if true, the motives behind the BATFE's actions appear to be far too cynical for me to willingly trust your agency with my tax dollars again.

I look forward to the day when the entire directorship of the BATFE is replaced by people who have demonstrated their honesty and good character, and when the BATFE will come clean on the matter of how Agent Terry was allowed to be murdered by a rifle that was allowed to be sold illegally, WITH THE KNOWLEDGE of your agency.

No more stonewalling, please. Submit to Congressional oversight and take your lumps.

It seems that we seem to be laboring under two separate sets of laws: one for the 'little people', and another for your employer.

Sincerely,
Keith Savoy

Ms. Terrell

I am shocked that anyone would think that the drug cartels would mess with buying a an odd hunting rifle here or there when they have the whole of central and south America from which to purchase any and all arms that they could desire. In Nicaragua, Honduras, or Guatemala, give me a break, anyone can in ten minutes find a dealer to buy a full auto AK or FAL or m16 in any of those countries. Why bother with a semi auto Remington with a four round magazine. Even if you had a ten round they don't work. Whats the point. Save the money to chase suspected straw purchases that are being reported and not followed through on. Those are real tips about real crimes, felonies if i am not mistaken, and federal at that. It is not as though our hunting rifles are easily or even with great difficulty able to be converted to full auto, and do you realize that having a detachable magazine is much safer than not having one. Many rifles that do not have detachable magazines, once they are loaded the only way to unload is to cycle each round through the chamber of the weapon thus increasing the potential for an accident where as with a detachable magazine you only have to remove the magazine and check the chamber and the gun is safe.

Additionally, think about who the gun dealers are. Patriotic and law abiding. The last thing a legitimate dealer is going to do is sell to someone he suspects is helping with the drug trade or with illegal aliens and if they are then this stupid request is not going to fool them into giving themselves up. If they are already selling guns illegally this request or demand will have no effect on them but will cost more time and resources that could be used for sting operations to catch illegal gun sales.

Please enforce the laws we have and stop wasting money.

Thank you
Sincerely
keith

Subject: ATF HAS NO AUTHORITY TO IMPOSE MULTIPLE SALES REPORTING FOR RIFLES-
Please do Not infringe on my rights!

Dear Ms. Terrell,

As a resident of the state of Texas, I am outraged that the BATF will try to make licensed, regulated gun dealers report sales of long guns to the BATF. The BATF has no authority to impose this requirement. Registration leads to confiscation, and I am opposed to this proposed regulation. The proper Federal response to the problems on the border is to enforce the border, stop suing the state of Arizona, and basically, do what the Federal government did well from it's inception up until the passage of the 1965 Immigration and Nationality Act, and that is ENFORCE THE BORDER.

Please do not infringe on my Second Amendment rights, because the Federal Government, under this rogue administration, will not perform it's Constitutionally charged duties!

ATF HAS NO AUTHORITY TO IMPOSE
MULTIPLE SALES REPORTING FOR RIFLES

The December 17, 2010 "Emergency Notice of Information Collection Under Review: Report of Multiple Sale or Other Disposition of Certain Rifles" does not indicate the statutory authority upon which ATF relies for its proposed multiple sales reporting requirement. However, a statement by ATF Deputy Director Kenneth Melson posted online at www.atf.gov indicates that licensees will be sent "demand letters" seeking the information. This memorandum explains why ATF's "demand letter" authority does not authorize the proposed collection.

The statutory authority for "demand letters" is 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(5)(A), which provides:

Each licensee shall, when required by letter issued by the Attorney General, and until notified to the contrary in writing by the Attorney General, submit on a form specified by the Attorney General, for periods and at the times specified in such letter, all record information required to be kept by this chapter or such lesser record information as the Attorney General in such letter may specify.

In determining whether § 923(g)(5)(A) authorizes ATF to require the reporting of multiple sales of certain rifles, its words "must be read in their context and with a view to their place in the overall statutory scheme." Davis v. Michigan Dept. of Treasury, 489 U.S. 803, 809 (1989). More recently, the Supreme Court has explained:

In determining whether Congress has specifically addressed the question at issue, a reviewing court should not confine itself to examining a particular statutory provision in isolation. The meaning—or ambiguity—of certain words or phrases may only become evident when placed in context.... A court must therefore interpret the statute "as a symmetrical and coherent regulatory scheme," . . . and "fit, i f possible, all parts into an harmonious whole . . . ."

FDA v. Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corp., 529 U.S. 120, 133 (2000)(citations omitted).

InMastro Plastics Corp. v. Labor Board, 350 U.S. 270, 285 (1956), the Court rejected an interpretation of a statute which read words in isolation:

I f the above words are read in complete isolation from their context in the Act, such an interpretation is possible. However, "In expounding a statute, we must not be guided by a single sentence or member of a sentence, but look to the provisions of the whole law, and to its object and policy." (citations omitted).

Subject: December 17, 2010 "Notice of Information Collection Under Review: Report of Multiple Sale or Other Disposition of Certain Rifles"

Ms. Terrell,

I am writing to voice my opinion on this proposed legislative revision. In brief, I am firmly against this action. I believe it to be an unwarranted intrusion on the rights and privacy of United States citizens and an overreaching misuse of agency function. I further believe said information will have no practical utility – to wit, it will not provide any meaningful information regarding illegal sale or transfer of firearms (specifically rifles) amongst the citizens of our United States. It truly appears the sole purpose of this proposal is to create a de facto registration of citizens who have committed NO crimes and are simply choosing to exercise their Constitutional rights while simultaneously adding to the already onerous paperwork burden of lawabiding businesses.

The original intent of 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(5)(A) should remain limited in scope as it is currently written and apply only to (1) dealers who are in clear violation of the law and (2) any specific firearm disposition directly related to a bona fide criminal investigation.

Thank you for your attention,

Mrs Terrell,

This is written in response to the many new reactionary and worthless measures being implemented by the BATFE.

First secure our borders, and gun violence will go down significantly.
Enforce existing immigration laws

Please stop punishing law abiding citizens and instead focus on the law breakers. All of these new proposals for additional rules and regulations will not put a dent in the problem. Criminals don't follow the many laws we have now. Simply passing more laws will not impact the commission of crime and will only affect those of us who are law abiding. America was founded on principles that entrust the public with its own welfare, while the government exists to promote it.

We have two boys. If one misbehaves, we don't discipline both of them.

Regards,

Chief Daris

Ms. Terrell,

I would like to voice my opposition to the "Notice of Information Collection Under Review: Report of Multiple Sale or Other Disposition of Certain Rifles." With government resources already stretched to their limits, we (the American people) cannot afford to spend money on concepts that possess little chance of impacting positively a given situation. The passage of this bill will only cost more tax payer dollars to "monitor" those already adhering to the law. To infringe on the freedoms of law abiding citizens because a minority choose to misuse those freedoms is not the right approach in a free society. We do not forbid the use of cars and trucks because some choose to drive drunk and inflict unnecessary harm. I understand the frustration over senseless violence. I am a peaceful person as well. Please do not give in to the belief system that advocates actions against non-offenders in hopes of reducing unacceptable behavior by offenders. Someone intent on committing a crime will always find the resources to do so. It is we, you and I, the ones who support "just" living in a free society that should not have to give up freedom.

Thank you for receiving this email.

This is an unnecessary regulation and is not allowed under Federal law. Title 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(3)(A) does not grant any such registration of multiple purchases of firearms, except for handguns.

The regulation contains no provision for the destruction of the collected information, and therefore is not legal under Title 18 U.S.C. § 926(a).

Ms. Terrell,

Once again, a governmental agency is trying to react outside the bounds of legislation and Judicial system to impose needless paperwork and restrictions for what? I ask you to please drop this meaningless quest to hamper commerce. Remember what the legislated purpose is of BATFE.

Thank you for considering my thoughts and I sincerely hope your office will cease in this endeavor.

Please respect americans freedoms to keep and bear arms.

A criminal is a criminal and is already committing crimes as this is what they do. The don't obey the current laws and won't obey new ones.

Even a complete ban on guns such as we have on drugs will not stop those that have no respect for laws and the rights of others as we've seen with drugs. More laws and regulations simply inconvenience those of us that follow laws and eat away at our rights to protect ourselves from them.

Sort of like a treaty with a communist that will continue to do as they please as we freely give up our ability to defend ourselves.

Thank you,

By creating more bureaucracy the ATF is not going to save any lives, just more problems for people like me who want to use our guns for hunting, personal protection or target shooting.

Criminals will still have guns. They will get them from the street gangs that sell on the black market or smuggle them in from out of state. Let's consider New York or Chicago states for a moment. Guns are everywhere and easy to get in those locales, but not legally. So what you have are illegal guns in illegal uses from a black market. You are moving to watch the legal sales here by people who are going to use them legally, but the black market will move in and fill any void created. Even Mexico, with its firearms restricting laws has not cracked down on the street gangs murdering each other and innocent victims.

It seems like an unsound policy all around.

I understand that you want to protect Americans from harm. Let Americans protect themselves from harm and try do something about illegal gun sales first. Enforcing the laws that we have already would curb much of the abuses that exist. That would seem a more reasonable approach to gun safety.

Thank you for allowing me to state my feelings.

I strongly support the ATF's proposal to require dealers along the border to report bulk sales of assault rifles, just like they already do with handgun sales. The ATF must use its authority to collect this information and better enforce the laws already on the books.

With more than 30,000 people already murdered in cartel wars, this is an emergency that demands our government's immediate attention.

This is an unnecessary regulation and is not allowed under Federal law. Title 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(3)(A) does not grant any such registration of multiple purchases of firearms, except for handguns.

The regulation contains no provision for the destruction of the collected information, and therefore is not legal under Title 18 U.S.C. § 926(a).

Dear Ms Terrell:

I writing in regards to the four southwest border states, which your office is demanding the authority to require all of the 8,500 firearm dealers in California, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas to report all sales of two or more semiautomatic rifles within five consecutive business days, if the rifles are larger than .22 caliber and use detachable magazines. I am referring to the December 17, 2010 "Notice of Information Collection Under Review: Report of Multiple Sale or Other Disposition of Certain Rifles.

I believe that this is an unnecessary request and would not improve safety in any way. This request would also bog down an already paperwork heavy process. I also believe the ATF has no legal authority to demand these reports, and the flood of new paperwork will waste scarce law enforcement resources that should be spent on legitimate investigations.

I respectfully urge you to drop this gun sales reporting request. This action of reporting would only affect law abiding gun owners and not the criminal element you would propose to target. That being said, any list gathered under this reporting request could only be gathered for government misuse.

Thank you for your consideration to my request to drop this reporting action.

Sincerely yours

While I understand that you are attempting to fight the shipment of guns to Mexico, this is not the way to accomplish the objective. First of all it is an intrusion into citizens of the United States who have the legal right to purchase weapons and this right has not been restricted by quantity. Second it is not efficient. The cost associated with the reporting by both the private gun dealers and the paperwork/investigation by the government is not going to be justifiable for the small number of actionable sales.

Next it will surely bring a lawsuit by the NRA and other gun ownership advocates. They will likely prevail since this is a second amendment issue and clearly violates the constitution. Even if you prevail it will cost millions in legal fees for all concerned.

Third, according to the records published by your department relatively few of the guns recovered from Mexico have been purchased in gun stores. They have come from private sales, guns shows and theft. We all understand that the mass of guns in Mexico come from the sale of surplus weapons to other countries which then allow them to get into the hands of the drug dealers. Many of these are Full Automatic weapons, which you can't buy in a gun store. Often these guns show as coming from the USA since they were manufactured here, but they didn't come directly from the USA.

Please don't abuse law abiding citizens who are within their legal rights to purchase weapons within the USA for their personal usage by tracking and investigating them. The best method is to use normal investigative methods. Get the weapons that came from the USA from our friends in Mexico and track them back to the source. Then prosecute that source to the fullest extent of the law if they sold the weapons illegally.

While I am an NRA member, I fully support closing the loop hole in the gun shows which avoids background checks. I am firmly against registration of guns since the only purpose is to know who has them and the only reason for that is the possibility of future action to tax or confiscate them. I would have no problem with a law requiring back ground checks on even private sales as long as the expense was reasonable, it was easy and it was timely. We need to keep guns out of the hands of criminals, without taking away the freedom of ownership that the second amendment provides.

Dear Mrs. Terrell:

I am firmly against the December 17, 2010 "Notice of Information Collection Under Review: Report of Multiple Sale or Other Disposition of Certain Rifles."

While I am not a resident of the States affected by this collection of information, I am opposed to the idea that the collection of information in selected States is a valid watch-dog tool.

Further, the dissemination of information is costly process. We are in a federal budget crunch. I would think that we should not be expanding our budget at this time to watch constitutionally allowable sales. The money would be much better not spent at all or to better cooperate with the U.S. Border Patrol or Homeland Security.

I am thankful that you are employed by a federal agency that is transparent enough to publish in the Federal Register.

Subject: Oppose Regulation Expanding Multiple Sale Reporting

I am writing to oppose the so called emergency regulation to register multiple sales of certain rifles with BATFE as described in FR Doc. 2010-31761 from the 12/17/2010 Federal Register.
<http://edocket.access.gpo.gov/2010/pdf/2010-31761.pdf>

This regulation is both illegal and unnecessary. Further there is no justification for any "emergency" implementation as reported by the Washington Post:
White House delayed rule meant to stop gun flow to Mexico, Washington Post, Dec. 17, 2010, On-line edition:
(<http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/content/article/2010/12/17/AR2010121706598.html> ).

* The regulation proposed is outside the statutory grant of authority to record information about multiple sales of firearms. Title 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(3)(A) specifically grants the authority to collect multiple sale information on handguns and revolvers. Other firearms are excluded and there is no implied authority to extend this reporting requirement to rifles or any other type of firearm.

* "FFL" holders are already required by law to respond to BATFE requests for information on firearms distribution pursuant to criminal investigations: Title 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(7).

* The regulation contains no provision for the destruction of information collected, which establishes a nationwide registry of "certain types of firearms" as proposed. Because of this the regulation as proposed is illegal under Title 18 U.S.C. § 926(a). "No such rule or regulation . may require that records required to be maintained under this chapter or any portion of the contents of such records, be recorded at or transferred to a facility owned, managed, or controlled by the United States or any State or any political subdivision thereof, nor that any system of registration of firearms, firearms owners, or firearms transactions or disposition be established."

There is a grave potential for this regulation to unduly burden citizens who are collectors or must obtain purchase permits at the local or state level to possess firearms. The proposed regulation does not say what the agency intends to do with the information but ostensibly it would be for criminal investigations. Subjecting law abiding gun owners to this type of investigation under the guise of "information collection" is an overt attempt to prevent them from exercising their 2nd Amendment rights to purchase and own firearms.

* This regulatory action has not allowed the public sufficient time to comment.

This regulatory action should not be approved.

Thank you

* The regulation proposed is outside the statutory grant of authority to record information about multiple sales of firearms. Title 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(3)(A) specifically grants the authority to collect multiple sale information on handguns and revolvers. Other firearms are excluded and there is no implied authority to extend this reporting requirement to rifles or any other type of firearm.

* "FFL" holders are already required by law to respond to BATFE requests for information on firearms distribution pursuant to criminal investigations: Title 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(7).

* The regulation contains no provision for the destruction of information collected, which establishes a nationwide registry of "certain types of firearms" as proposed. Because of this the regulation as proposed is illegal under Title 18 U.S.C. § 926(a). "No such rule or regulation . may require that records required to be maintained under this chapter or any portion of the contents of such records, be recorded at or transferred to a facility owned, managed, or controlled by the United States or any State or any political subdivision thereof, nor that any system of registration of firearms, firearms owners, or firearms transactions or disposition be established."

There is a grave potential for this regulation to unduly burden citizens who are collectors or must obtain purchase permits at the local or state level to possess firearms. The proposed regulation does not say what the agency intends to do with the information but ostensibly it would be for criminal investigations. Subjecting law abiding gun owners to this type of investigation under the guise of "information collection" is an overt attempt to prevent them from exercising their 2nd Amendment rights to purchase and own firearms.

* This regulatory action has not allowed the public sufficient time to comment.

This regulatory action should not be approved.

Dear Barbara,

This is in regards to the December 17, 2010 "Notice of Information Collection Under Review: Report of Multiple Sale or Other Disposition of Certain Rifles." I live in Arizona and am against this new proposed law by the ATF. Big government is not the answer and criminals are not going to be buying from a dealer any ways.

I respectfully request that you OPPOSE the "Notice of Information Collection Under Review: Report of Multiple Sale or Other Disposition of Certain Rifles."

This is an unnecessary regulation and is not allowed under Federal law. Title 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(3)(A) does not grant any such registration of multiple purchases of firearms, except for handguns.

The regulation contains no provision for the destruction of the collected information, and therefore is not legal under Title 18 U.S.C. § 926(a).

Laws do matter and this unnecessary and extra-legal proposal must NOT be approved.

This letter is to comment on and oppose the ATF illegal attempt to harass and violate the civil rights of law abiding American citizens with an illegal scheme to require reporting of long gun sales in the Southwestern United States. Discrimination against citizens who live in the Southwest is unacceptable; furthermore, this proposal would waste taxpayer money in a feeble attempt by the ATF to cover up their own ineptitude in pursuing and convicting violent criminals by preying upon the easy target of innocent citizens.

Dear Barbara Terrell,

It's time that the Obama administration does more to crack down on the gun smuggling carried out by the Mexican drug cartels.

I strongly support the ATF's proposal to require dealers along the border to report bulk sales of assault rifles, just like they already do with handgun sales. The ATF must use its authority to collect this information and better enforce the laws already on the books.

With more than 30,000 people already murdered in cartel wars, this is an emergency that demands our government's immediate attention.

Barbara,

I am writing in reference to the December 17, 2010 "Notice of Information Collection Under Review: Report of Multiple Sale or Other Disposition of Certain Rifles" issue.

This is a step that this country can ill afford. Have we learned nothing from this happening throughout history? This is incredibly bad for Liberty and the citizens of the U.S., not to mention it will NOT help law enforcement. In fact this will only detract from the efforts of law enforcement, since they will be investigating the wrong people, i.e. the law abiding citizens buying legal guns (well within our rights). The bad guys are not buying semi-auto guns in U.S. gun stores, they are buying fully automatic guns and grenade launchers (already illegal and NOT sold in U.S. gun stores) from the black market by the thousands.

ATF does not, and should not have this authority. It is ridiculous and a red herring. It is a blatant power usurpation, and voters and citizens like me are done taking this type of treatment. Didn't last November teach you guys anything? Go after the bad guys, leave the law abiding citizens alone.

An emergency order is the first step in making all gun sales reported so that legally purchased guns can be confiscated..... Also this appears that a foreign government is dictating what the ATF does..... I can see the reporting of cash sales of more than 5 assault weapons at a time, multiple days in a row, but not of regular hunting rifles. As I see it the ATF is trying to make criminals out of law abiding citizens and trying to do away with the second amendment.

The ATF has no legal authority to demand these reports, and the flood of new paperwork will waste scarce law enforcement resources that should be spent on legitimate investigations.

In taking your oath of office, you swore to uphold and defend the United States Constitution. You are certainly aware that inherent in that document is the Second Amendment forbidding abridgment of the rights of the people to keep and bear arms.

For the government or any of its agencies to require reporting, recording, or in any way limiting the sale and purchase of such arms is abridgment.

It is your elected responsibility to protect inviolate the Second Amendment. Please put an end to this effort by the BATFE.

Subject: Oppose Regulation Expanding Multiple Sale Reporting

Dear Barbara Terrell,

I am writing to oppose the so called emergency regulation to register multiple sales of certain rifles with BATFE as described in FR Doc. 2010-31761 from the 12/17/2010 Federal Register.

This regulation is both illegal and unnecessary. Further there is no justification for any "emergency" implementation as reported by the Washington Post:

White House delayed rule meant to stop gun flow to Mexico, Washington Post, Dec. 17, 2010, On-line edition:

( <http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/content/article/2010/12/17/AR2010121706598.html>

* The regulation proposed is outside the statutory grant of authority to record information about multiple sales of firearms. Title 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(3)(A) specifically grants the authority to collect multiple sale information on handguns and revolvers. Other firearms are excluded and there is no implied authority to extend this reporting requirement to rifles or any other type of firearm.

* "FFL" holders are already required by law to respond to BATFE requests for information on firearms distribution pursuant to criminal investigations: Title 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(7).

* The regulation contains no provision for the destruction of information collected, which establishes a nationwide registry of "certain types of firearms" as proposed. Because of this the regulation as proposed is illegal under Title 18 U.S.C. § 926(a). "No such rule or regulation . may require that records required to be maintained under this chapter or any portion of the contents of such records, be recorded at or transferred to a facility owned, managed, or controlled by the United States or any State or any political subdivision thereof, nor that any system of registration of firearms, firearms owners, or firearms transactions or disposition be established."

There is a grave potential for this regulation to unduly burden citizens who are collectors or must obtain purchase permits at the local or state level to possess firearms. The proposed regulation does not say what the agency intends to do with the information but ostensibly it would be for criminal investigations. Subjecting law abiding gun owners to this type of investigation under the guise of "information collection" is an overt attempt to prevent them from exercising their 2nd Amendment rights to purchase and own firearms.

* This regulatory action has not allowed the public sufficient time to comment.

This regulatory action should not be approved.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Keith

Mrs Terrell,

my name is ken kershaw and i am a 14 year paratrooper vet as well as a student of American history. i have read this ridiculous A.T.F. policy of reporting 2 or more sales of all semi auto rifles over .22 caliber within 5 days. i have also read the "reasons" given as to stop the flow of illegal weapons into Mexico. I'm not sure which is more pathetic. the truth of the matter is that the drug cartels are using real assault weapons with full auto and burst capability, grenade launchers, and R.P.G.'s, last i checked these were all made illegal for general purchase and possession by US citizens in 1934. in other words the entire argument for this registration policy is fraudulent and an outright lie. it is another example of using a political agenda to further oppress the American people.

my second thought is much more basic. i am wondering where the A.T.F. gets the authority to force this "policy" of theirs down the throats of the American people. see as i understand it, the only federal governmental body with the authority to enact new laws was the congress not the A.T.F.. do the higher ups in the A.F.T. understand what they are doing and the very slippery slope that they have started us down? this is a prime example of ruling by decree. this is not only illegal and immoral but unconstitutional, this must be opposed. i have sent letters to my Representatives in both houses of congress urging an investigation into this matter, because the bottom line is that the American people are not responsible for the Mexican drug wars. nor should that situation be used to further enslave the American people.

thank you for your time in this matter,

Ms. Terrell instead of making life miserable for us Americans why don't everybody get behind capital punishment? A lot of us gave the better parts of our lives to the military to enjoy these rights we have here in this country and we've saw a lot of our buddies louse their lives defining those rights. When I was in high school and young years nobody even thought of using a firearm against a fellow man unless it was war. We had capital punishment then now the crooks don't care and all our Government wants to do is make it easier for them by taking away our defenses. Please think about the things that you do and I really think you will know that I'm right. Thank you for listening to me.

It's time that the Obama administration does more to crack down on the gun smuggling carried out by the Mexican drug cartels.

I strongly support the ATF's proposal to require dealers along the border to report bulk sales of assault rifles, just like they already do with handgun sales. The ATF must use its authority to collect this information and better enforce the laws already on the books.

With more than 30,000 people already murdered in cartel wars, this is an emergency that demands our government's immediate attention.

Americans have the God-given right to keep and bear arms. This right SHALL NOT BE INFRINGED. The proposed border-state legislation is a clear infringement. In addition to violating basic rights of Americans in those states it is SILLY to think that such legislation will result in any positive change in reducing violence in those border states. The violence problem is due to drug trafficking. Drug trafficking in Mexico is due to a weak government in MEXICO. It is STUPID to think that a problem with a weak Mexican government can be solved by infringing on the rights - and ability of FREE AMERICANS TO DEFEND THEMSELVES!

Madam Director;

I am constantly amazed at the misguided efforts of agencies such as the BATFE. How you can seriously use taxpayer's budgeted funds to "politicize and undermine" the Second Amendment and attempt to add controls and restrictions on the rights of private, law abiding citizens ceases to amaze me.

Reasonable regulation that falls within the confines of the laws passed by the Congress of the United States is one thing, but this naked attempt at the 'forced' reporting of all long gun sales in four border states is nothing but a political attempt to control the sale and use of long guns for sport, hunting and self defense by law abiding citizens is a ruse. And, as director of the agency, you should know that you have no constitutional standing to do so. You would do well to remember that citizens who care are paying attention to your bureau's activities.

To state that the violence perpetrated by Mexican drug cartels is happening only because we have loose laws when it comes to the sale of long guns is pure propaganda and a distortion of the facts. Through this charge, you are making a thinly veiled attempt to control the actions of the law abiding citizens who live in border states by depriving them of the liberty to exercise, if they so choose, their Second Amendment rights.

According to the NRA this demand is illegal. I am opposed to this demand in any event and I respectfully ask you to deny it.

Subject: Notice of Information Collection Under Review: Report of Multiple Sale of Certain Rifles

Dear Madam,

Although these proposed actions may seem necessary to deal with the problems at our southern borders I fear that they are an overreach of authority by our Government, and the ATF in particular. The ATF has no legal authority to demand these reports, and the flood of new paperwork will waste scarce law enforcement resources that should be spent on legitimate investigations.

Surely the ATF can deal with this issue in a better fashion than this and thereby not infringe on law abiding gun purchasers in our border states. No doubt if given this authority it would eventually be used in all states at the discretion of the government/ATF etc. without any legislative approval or oversight.

It is therefore my personal view that any such action as proposed would only serve to infringe on the average citizens right to "keep and bear arms" as guaranteed by the US Constitution.

I fully realize that the ATF as well as other law enforcement authorities in the country are stretched to the limit, tasked with an extremely difficult job, and are doing their best to do their duty. But, I believe we need to be very vigilant in carefully adhering to the US Constitution in everything we do. After all, it is the only real guarantor of all the rights and privileges we have.

Respectfully, Kenney Hanson Sr.

Surely you can't believe this does anything to combat the illegal use of firearms in the hands of drug cartel members? A cartel that has millions of dollars to be spent anywhere it wants. These illegals don't go to the trouble of buying a couple at a time semi-autos when they can get crates of full auto weapons. I doubt they sign any papers.

Ranchers , farmers and other sportsman again would be the only ones to comply if compelled to.

Another erosion of our freedom at the hands of criminals.

Ms. Terrell:

I am writing to you to express my negative response to the Dec. 17, 2010 dated proposal for collection of information regarding multiple purchases of certain firearms affecting four south western border states. The BATFE has limited resources that can not be wasted on ineffectiive, inappropriate reporting requirements for purchases of two or more rifles with detachable magazines within a specified time frame.

I fully understand the need to assist the Mexican government in curbing the horrible violence occurring along our mutual borders. But this proposal will have absolutely no effect on this problem, and will do harm to millions of American citizens when they are restricted from utilizing their purchasing power in these economically challenging times. A grandfather who finds a specially priced American made hunting or target rifle, and would like to gift multiple members of his family during holiday season will be unable to, as example.

Please don't waste our valuable BATFE employees time reporting harmless activities that are legal in nature and statute.

It's time that the Obama administration does more to crack down on the gun smuggling carried out by the Mexican drug cartels.

I strongly support the ATF's proposal to require dealers along the border to report bulk sales of assault rifles, just like they already do with handgun sales. The ATF must use its authority to collect this information and better enforce the laws already on the books.

With more than 30,000 people already murdered in cartel wars, this is an emergency that demands our government's immediate attention.

Additionally this added burden will serve only to dilute the focus of ATF agents w/ voluminous paperwork.

Dear Ma'am,

After reviewing the ATF comments and proposal for the referenced policy. I would have to say that I strongly believe that this is something that is not needed, and is beyond the purview of what congress, the people, have given permission for your agency to address. This seems to be either an excuse or a knee jerk reaction to what has happened recently in our country, to try and enact a more stringent firearms policy. Making it more cumbersome to purchase firearms for law abiding citizens is in no way going to keep criminals and mexican drug types from continuing to break the law. In addition, stop trying to subject citizens to further scrutiny and use the limited law enforcement resources that we have to catch the real bad guys and quit trying to enforce/forec more unneeded and unwanted laws unto the American people.

Truly, Kevin Pritchard

Subject: Comments opposing FR Doc. 2010-31761

Dear Ms Terrell,

I am writing to oppose the so called emergency regulation to register multiple sales of certain rifles with BATFE as described in FR Doc. 2010-31761 from the 12/17/2010 Federal Register. <http://edocket.access.gpo.gov/2010/pdf/2010-31761.pdf>

This regulation is both illegal and unnecessary. Further there is no justification for any "emergency" implementation as reported by the Washington Post:

White House delayed rule meant to stop gun flow to Mexico, Washington Post, Dec. 17, 2010, On-line edition:

( <http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/content/article/2010/12/17/AR2010121706598.html> ).

* The regulation proposed is outside the statutory grant of authority to record information about multiple sales of firearms. Title 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(3)(A) specifically grants the authority to collect multiple sale information on handguns and revolvers. Other firearms are excluded and there is no implied authority to extend this reporting requirement to rifles or any other type of firearm.

* "FFL" holders are already required by law to respond to BATFE requests for information on firearms distribution pursuant to criminal investigations: Title 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(7).

* The regulation contains no provision for the destruction of information collected, which establishes a nationwide registry of "certain types of firearms" as proposed. Because of this the regulation as proposed is illegal under Title 18 U.S.C. § 926(a). "No such rule or regulation ... may require that records required to be maintained under this chapter or any portion of the contents of such records, be recorded at or transferred to a facility owned, managed, or controlled by the United States or any State or any political subdivision thereof, nor that any system of registration of firearms, firearms owners, or firearms transactions or disposition be established."

There is a grave potential for this regulation to unduly burden citizens who are collectors or must obtain purchase permits at the local or state level to possess firearms. The proposed regulation does not say what the agency intends to do with the information but ostensibly it would be for criminal investigations. Subjecting law abiding gun owners to this type of investigation under the guise of "information collection" is an overt attempt to prevent them from exercising their 2nd Amendment rights to purchase and own firearms.

* This regulatory action has not allowed the public sufficient time to comment.

This regulatory action should not be approved.

Sincerely,

Kevin St. Clair

Ms. Terrell

I wish to convey my total displeasure of the BATF wanting to include a new law that all gun buys and sells in the southern border states must be reported in such a small amount of time.

What the BATF should do is to be more concerned with engaging with bad people. Not people who wish to protect themselves, families and property with rightfully purchased firearms.

We have a problem in this country that isn't about reporting gun sales that could imply that FFL holders are selling guns to gangs that are mass murdering each other on the Mexico side of the border.

I don't believe that is happening, however if it is true and that there are FFL holders selling guns illegally then you just need to hang them.

I am very disturbed concerning the December 17, 2010 Notice of Information Collection Under Review: Report of Multiple Sale or Other Disposition of Certain Rifles.

I have read the proposal that is being made for firearm dealers in California, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas to report all sales of two or more semiautomatic rifles within five consecutive business days, if the rifles are larger than .22 caliber and use detachable magazines.

What will be accomplished by this? NOTHING!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

All one has to do is wait past the time limits or have a buddy purchase the second firearm. All this is doing is costing the tax payers more money trying to stop individuals from exercising their second amendment rights.

Remember, cars kill more individuals each year, but no one, I repeat, no one is doing anything to stop the car from killing individuals. So why should we stop the firearm?

We need to stop the people that drive the car and those that shot the firearm. I individual item, car or firearm, is not doing the killing!

Please do whatever you can to stop this waste of taxpayers money.

Thank you for your comment regarding the 60-day emergency notice of information collection relating to ATF Form 3310.12 (Report of Multiple Sale or Other Disposition of Certain Rifles), published in the Federal Register on December 17, 2010. The Federal Register and supplement form may be found at: <http://www.atf.gov/regulations-rulings/rulemakings/general-notices.html>

The primary purpose of this program is to improve law enforcement's ability to identify firearms traffickers, to disrupt the criminal activity and to stop deadly violence plaguing the Southwest Border States and Mexico. The multiple sales reports will apply only to rifles that are semi-automatic, greater than .22 caliber, and have the ability to accept a detachable magazine. ATF intends to implement this program to require that Federal firearms licensees in the States of California, Arizona, New Mexico, and Texas complete the form for those transactions in which an individual purchases two or more of these rifles within five business days. We intend to evaluate the results at the end of a 1 year pilot period, at which time ATF may expand, narrow or discontinue the program.

As mentioned in the notice, if granted by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), the emergency approval of the form is valid for 180 days. All comments received in response to the notice will be carefully considered and, if warranted, revisions to the form will be made.

It's time that the Obama administration does more to crack down on the gun smuggling carried out by the Mexican drug cartels.

I strongly support the ATF's proposal to require dealers along the border to report bulk sales of assault rifles, just like they already do with handgun sales. The ATF must use its authority to collect this information and better enforce the laws already on the books.

With more than 30,000 people already murdered in cartel wars, this is an emergency that demands our government's immediate attention.

Sir/Ma'am

I always enjoy a canned response from a Departmental Bureaucrate. This will do nothing to stop the illegal gun flow in to Mexico. Most of the guns do not come from the United States to begin with that end up in Mexico. Those weapons that do come from the United State were in nearly every case stold form Law Abiding Citisens of the the United States by illegals allians from Mexico. Your information you are using is flawed and your office refuses to accept facts that would refute the information that you have.

Remember garbage in garbage out. If you data is flawed you can only expect to get flawed results.

Perhaps I would get more of a response if I were to write in Spanish so here it is in a language that this addimistation seems to be more incline to listen to.

Soy apposed a este mandato enfermo del consived de su Oficina. Esto no hará nada proteger el público y hacer sólo futher dificulta la ley que mora ciudadanos de esta gran nación. Acaba de ir a mostrar que usted oficina cree que está encima de las leyes. Como sólo congreso hace la ley, Burócratas no Departamentales.

1. Múltiples ventas que reportean de fusiles largos realmente lo harán más difícil para detallistas licenciados para ayudar aplicación de la ley como negociantes modifican sus esquemas ilegales para rodear el requisito de la cobertura. Los negociantes irán adicional subterráneo, empleando a más personas para comprar sus fusiles. Esto lo hará mucho más duro para detallistas para identificar y reportear conducta sospechosa a la aplicación de la ley.
2. Los fusiles largos son utilizados raramente en el crimen (Oficina de la Estadística de la Justicia).
3. Múltiples imponentes requisitos de ventas-reportando para fusiles largos añadirían aún más a los requisitos ya extensos de papeleo y archivado que cargan los detallistas de América – donde un error único les podría costar su licencia e incluso tierra ellos en cárcel.
4. El año pasado, ATF inspeccionó a 2.000 detallistas en estados contiguos y sólo dos licencias fueron revocadas (0.1%). Estas revocaciones fueron para razones desconocidas y no podrían haber tenido nada que ver con trafico de drogas ilícito de fusiles; además, ningunos comerciantes fueron acusados de maldad criminal.
5. Según ATF, la edad media de un fusil recuperado en Estados Unidos tiene 11 años. En México tiene más de 14 años. Esto demuestra que criminales no utilizan nuevos fusiles comprados de detallistas en los estados.
6. Congreso, cuando decretó múltiples ventas a que reportean para pistolas, podrían haber requerido múltiples ventas de fusiles largos – escogió específicamente no.

Thank you for your comment regarding the 60-day emergency notice of information collection relating to ATF Form 3310.12 (Report of Multiple Sale or Other Disposition of Certain Rifles), published in the Federal Register on December 17, 2010. The Federal Register and supplement form may be found at: <http://www.atf.gov/regulations-rulings/rulemakings/general-notices.html>

The primary purpose of this program is to improve law enforcement's ability to identify firearms traffickers, to disrupt the criminal activity and to stop deadly violence plaguing the southwest border States and Mexico. The multiple sales reports will apply only to rifles that are semi-automatic, greater than .22 caliber, and have the ability to accept a detachable magazine. Federal firearms licensees in the States of California, Arizona, New Mexico, and Texas will complete the forms for those transactions when an individual purchases two or more of these rifles within five business days. We intend to evaluate the results at the end of a 1 year pilot period.

As mentioned in the notice, if granted by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), the emergency approval of the form is valid for 180 days. All comments received in response to the notice will be carefully considered and, if warranted, revisions to the form will be made.

Barbara,

I am apposed to this ill consived mandate from your Office. This will do nothing to protect the public and will only futher hinder the law abiding citizens of this great nation. It just goes to show that you office believes that it is above the laws. As only congress makes law, not Departmental Bureaucrates.

1. Multiple sales reporting of long guns will actually make it more difficult for licensed retailers to help law enforcement as traffickers modify their illegal schemes to circumvent the reporting requirement. Traffickers will go further underground, hiring more people to buy their firearms. This will make it much harder for retailers to identify and report suspicious behavior to law enforcement.
2. Long guns are rarely used in crime (Bureau of Justice Statistics).
3. Imposing multiple sales-reporting requirements for long guns would further add to the already extensive paperwork and record-keeping requirements burdening America's retailers – where a single mistake could cost them their license and even land them in jail.
4. Last year, ATF inspected 2,000 retailers in border states and only two licenses were revoked (0.1%). These revocations were for reasons unknown and could have had nothing to do with illicit trafficking of guns; furthermore, no dealers were charged with any criminal wrongdoing.
5. According to ATF, the average age of a firearm recovered in the United States is 11 years old. In Mexico it's more than 14 years old. This demonstrates that criminals are not using new guns bought from retailers in the states.
6. Congress, when it enacted multiple sales reporting for handguns, could have required multiple sales of long guns – it specifically chose not to.

I will also be contacting my Congressman Robert Bishop and my 2 Senators Orin Hatch and Michael Lee.

I am opposed to any further rules concerning gun sales, especially when it concerns complaints coming from Mexico. I believe Mexico has their problems for a reason, and it doesn't stem from the US. Nor do we have enough time or manpower or money to add additional work to our business and gov agencies.

Follow the laws we already have, get rid of criminal element illegals , know who's coming into the country i.e. secure the border. Problem solved. If we can track a calf from a farm in Canada to a burger at McDonalds for the sake of US safety, we can do the same w immigrants.

If you want to control long weapons, stop the manufacture of AK 47's in Venezuela by the Russian and their arming insurgents to America. Pick on the real threats to security. This is far more of a threat to security than a 6 shot 30 cal used for hunting. Control the threat, not the allies.

Subject: Please OPPOSE the BATFE's proposal to report multiple sale of certain rifles

Please OPPOSE the “Notice of Information Collection Under Review: Report of Multiple Sale or Other Disposition of Certain Rifles.”

This is an unnecessary regulation and is not allowed under Federal law. Title 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(3)(A) does not grant any such registration of multiple purchases of firearms, except for handguns.

The regulation contains no provision for the destruction of the collected information, and therefore is not legal under Title 18 U.S.C. § 926(a).

Laws do matter and this unnecessary and extra-legal proposal must NOT be approved.

Sincerely,

David Knight

Ms. Terrell,

Please do not make it harder for licensed dealers to make sales by increasing the paperwork required for small sales amounts. I do not believe that the proposed law will make a difference to the number of guns acquired by Mexican drug dealers. Nor do I believe that the type of guns used are legally available for sale in the US. Thank you for your time and effort in reading my opinion in this matter.

Subject: REPORT OF MULTIPLE SALE AND OTHER DISPOSITION OF CERTAIN RIFLES

Dear Ms. Terrell,

I would like to offer comments on the above referenced new report the BATFE is attempting to institute. I feel the new requirement is for one, another burden on the sellers of Firearms. Isn't there enough paperwork already necessary to fill out for them and to process for your department. Wouldn't the time and expense required to manage this be better spent on other activities such as enforcing laws already on the books and trying to CONTROL the flow of illegals across the border and the crime that they bring with them which is tremendously OUT OF CONTROL and no one on the FEDERAL LEVEL SEEMS TO CARE ABOUT IT! Which in itself is appalling; THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT IS BREAKING CONSTITUTIONAL LAW BY NOT PROTECTING THE BORDERS OF OUR COUNTRY!

Next, I believe that the institution of such a requirement is just another way for the FEDERAL GOVERNMENT AND THEIR ANTI-GUN AGENDA TO TRACK GUN OWNERS AND IMPEDE ON OUR SECOND AMENDMENT RIGHTS. The SUPREME COURT has said the 2nd Amendment was meant for all citizens who are not criminals to be able to protect themselves from loss of property and protection of their families and this is just another way for this lame government to limit the citizens ability to protect himself, his family and property from these illegal aliens that are running rampant. The FEDERAL GOVERNMENT AND IT'S AGENCIES THAT WASTE TAXPAYER MONEY WHILE CONSTANTLY WHITTILING AWAY AT THE LEGAL CITIZENS RIGHTS OUGHT TO BE TRIED AND DISBANDED. I and many others are getting really tired of seeing this happen while our country is being overrun and destroyed by the vermin that cross our borders daily and unchecked. Now a citizen is being sued for "illegally" detaining illegals he caught crossing his ranch! How did he know they would not harm him or his family. This country is upside down and going to lost if something isn't done soon!

Thank you for allowing me to express my thoughts!

GOD BLESS AMERICA!!!!!!!

I feel you would make more progress tracking the serial numbers from the weapons we supplied to the Mexican army. The drug dealers are using grenades, machine guns and items that cannot be purchased at a U.S. sporting goods store. Based on media reports, most of the weapons are manufactured in China and old Soviet Block countries, then smuggled up from South and Central America.

This is a waste of time and money.

Respectfully,

Ms. Terrell,

Do not waste time and money by requiring the reporting of all sales of two or more semiautomatic rifles within five consecutive business days in California, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas. This not the way to accomplish the stated goal; it is simply another futile attempt that restricts the rights of law abiding citizens, and wastes their tax dollars, to solve a problem caused by criminals, who do not pay taxes or obey the laws.

In regard to the December 17, 2010 “Notice of Information Collection Under Review: Report of Multiple Sale or Other Disposition of Certain Rifles.” You can submit your comments to:

As most legal gun owners are aware, The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives is demanding the authority to require all of the 8,500 firearm dealers in California, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas to report all sales of two or more semiautomatic rifles within five consecutive business days, if the rifles are larger than .22 caliber and use detachable magazines.

For example, a dealer would have to tell the government every time a deer hunter in Sacramento or Amarillo finds a good deal on a pair of semi-auto .30-06s like the popular Remington 7400.

The ATF has no legal authority to demand these reports, and the flood of new paperwork will waste scarce law enforcement resources that should be spent on legitimate investigations. I know that something needs to be done but making things more difficult for law abiding American citizens is not the solution to the problems in Mexico! I am 100% against granting the ATF&E the authority to do this!

Subject: Comment period for FR Doc. 2010-31761 -- Oppose

I am writing to oppose the so called emergency regulation to register multiple sales of certain rifles with BATFE as described in FR Doc. 2010-31761 from the 12/17/2010 Federal Register.

This regulation is both illegal and unnecessary. Further there is no justification for any "emergency" implementation as reported by the Washington Post:

White House delayed rule meant to stop gun flow to Mexico, Washington Post, Dec. 17, 2010, On-line edition:

( <http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/content/article/2010/12/17/AR2010121706598.html>).

* The regulation proposed is outside the statutory grant of authority to record information about multiple sales of firearms. Title 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(3)(A) specifically grants the authority to collect multiple sale information on handguns and revolvers. Other firearms are excluded and there is no implied authority to extend this reporting requirement to rifles or any other type of firearm.

* "FFL" holders are already required by law to respond to BATFE requests for information on firearms distribution pursuant to criminal investigations: Title 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(7).

* The regulation contains no provision for the destruction of information collected, which establishes a nationwide registry of "certain types of firearms" as proposed. Because of this the regulation as proposed is illegal under Title 18 U.S.C. § 926(a). "No such rule or regulation . may require that records required to be maintained under this chapter or any portion of the contents of such records, be recorded at or transferred to a facility owned, managed, or controlled by the United States or any State or any political subdivision thereof, nor that any system of registration of firearms, firearms owners, or firearms transactions or disposition be established."

There is a grave potential for this regulation to unduly burden citizens who are collectors or must obtain purchase permits at the local or state level to possess firearms. The proposed regulation does not say what the agency intends to do with the information but ostensibly it would be for criminal investigations. Subjecting law abiding gun owners to this type of investigation under the guise of "information collection" is an overt attempt to prevent them from exercising their 2nd Amendment rights to purchase and own firearms.

* This regulatory action has not allowed the public sufficient time to comment.

This regulatory action should not be approved.

Sincerely,

Kristopher Rich
St. Joseph, MI

It's time that Obama administration does more to crack down on the gun smuggling carried out by the Mexican drug cartels.

I strongly support the ATF's proposal to require dealers along the border to report bulk sales of assault rifles, just like they already do with handgun sales. The ATF must use its authority to collect this information and better enforce the laws already on the books.

With more than 30,000 people already murdered in cartel wars, this is an emergency that demands our government's immediate attention.

Hello Barbara,

The information collection that is being asked for is a waste of resources that we do not have. It will do nothing to stop crime, or slow the violence that is being seen on our borders. Once again the government is trying to overstep their bounds in the name of security.

Gun control does not keep weapons out of the hands of criminals. Stop wasting our time, and go after the illegals.

Thank you, Kurt R. Howland, LPN

Subject: Emergency Regulation to Register Multiple Sales

I am writing to oppose the so called emergency regulation to register multiple sales of certain rifles with BATFE as described in FR Doc. 2010-31761 from the 12/17/2010 Federal Register.

This regulation is both illegal and unnecessary. Further there is no justification for any “emergency” implementation as reported by the Washington Post:

White House delayed rule meant to stop gun flow to Mexico, Washington Post, Dec. 17, 2010, On-line edition: (<http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/content...0121706598.html>).

* The regulation proposed is outside the statutory grant of authority to record information about multiple sales of firearms. Title 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(3)(A) specifically grants the authority to collect multiple sale information on handguns and revolvers. Other firearms are excluded and there is no implied authority to extend this reporting requirement to rifles or any other type of firearm.

* “FFL” holders are already required by law to respond to BATFE requests for information on firearms distribution pursuant to criminal investigations: Title 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(7).

* The regulation contains no provision for the destruction of information collected, which establishes a nationwide registry of “certain types of firearms” as proposed. Because of this the regulation as proposed is illegal under Title 18 U.S.C. § 926(a). “No such rule or regulation ... may require that records required to be maintained under this chapter or any portion of the contents of such records, be recorded at or transferred to a facility owned, managed, or controlled by the United States or any State or any political subdivision thereof, nor that any system of registration of firearms, firearms owners, or firearms transactions or disposition be established.”

There is a grave potential for this regulation to unduly burden citizens who are collectors or must obtain purchase permits at the local or state level to possess firearms. The proposed regulation does not say what the agency intends to do with the information but ostensibly it would be for criminal investigations. Subjecting law abiding gun owners to this type of investigation under the guise of “information collection” is an overt attempt to prevent them from exercising their 2nd Amendment rights to purchase and own firearms.

* This regulatory action has not allowed the public sufficient time to comment.

This regulatory action should not be approved.

Sincerely,

Kurt Miller

Subject: Opposition to multiple sale regulations

Importance: High

Dear Ms. Terrell:

I oppose the "emergency regulation" to require multiple sales of certain rifles with BATFE as described in FR Doc. 2010-31761 from the December 17, 2010 Federal Register.

This regulation is unnecessary and potentially illegal. In addition, there is no justification for any "emergency" implementation.

1. The regulation is outside the statutory grant of authority to record information about multiple sales of firearms. Title 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(3)(A) specifically grants the authority to collect multiple sale information on handguns and revolvers. There is no implied authority to extend this reporting requirement to any other type of firearm.

2. FFL holders are already required to respond to BATFE requests for information on firearms distribution pursuant to criminal investigations as per Title 18 U.S.C. § 923(g)(7).

3. The regulation contains no provision for the destruction of information collected. This could establish a nationwide registry of these firearms. This would be illegal under Title 18 U.S.C. § 926(a).

4. This regulation will unduly burden lawful collectors and/or those who must obtain purchase permits at the local or state level to possess firearms. The regulation does not say what the agency intends to do with the information but ostensibly it would be for criminal investigations.

Due to these reasons, I oppose any additional multiple sale regulations of any type.

Sincerely,

Michael Kwiatkowski

Notice of Information Collection Under Review: Report of Multiple Sale or Other Disposition of Certain Rifles

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing in regards to the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives (ATF) information collection request to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB).

The notice proposed an "emergency" requirement that certain federal firearms licensees report multiple sales or other dispositions whenever the licensee sells or otherwise disposes of two or more rifles within any five consecutive business days with the following characteristics: (a) Semi automatic; (b) a caliber greater than .22; and (c) the ability to accept a detachable magazine.

The collection of this information will not benefit law enforcement and will cause a burden on the system and legal firearm owners. Firearms from these states are not the major source of weapons that are acquired illegally in Mexico. Many of those confiscated weapons in Mexico are manufactured in the US, but these weapons are often exported outside of the US by other countries and then illegally sold to Mexico. Therefore placing a burden on legal small arms dealers in the US will not slow the trafficking of weapons and Mexico. Other means should be used to fight the illegal firearms trade, instead of making it even harder for US citizens to legally acquire weapons that are protected by our constitution.

Please oppose this and any other similar requests for this information now and in the future.

sincerely,
Kyle Dunning, MD
