

CFR part 31) relating to the IRS TIN Matching Program.

Section 3406(a)(1) requires a payor to withhold on any reportable payment (as defined in section 3406(b)(1)) in certain situations, including if (1) the payee fails to furnish his TIN to the payor as required or (2) the Secretary notifies the payor that the TIN furnished by the payee is incorrect. Section 3406(i) provides that the Secretary shall prescribe such regulations as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of section 3406.

Regulations under section 3406(i) provide that the Commissioner has the authority to establish TIN matching programs through revenue procedures or other appropriate guidance. Under the regulations, a payor participating in a TIN matching program may, before filing information returns with respect to reportable payments, contact the IRS with respect to the TIN furnished by the payee. The regulations provide that the IRS will inform the payor whether or not the name/TIN combination furnished by the payee matches a name/TIN combination maintained for the TIN matching program.

Pursuant to the authority in the regulations, the IRS issued Rev. Proc. 97-31 (1997-1 C.B. 703) and implemented a TIN matching program for Federal agency payors. The IRS is now issuing a second revenue procedure pursuant to that authority (as amended by these temporary regulations). This revenue procedure will expand the scope of the IRS TIN Matching Program to allow all payors (and not merely Federal agency payors), as well as payors' authorized agents, to participate in TIN matching. In addition, the IRS and the Treasury Department expect to issue additional published guidance that will allow payment card organizations to act on behalf of cardholder/payors for purposes of soliciting, collecting, and validating merchant/payees' names and TINs through TIN matching if certain requirements are met.

Explanation of Provisions

These regulations specifically authorize a payor's authorized agent to participate in TIN matching by providing that, for purposes of the TIN matching program, the term payor includes an agent designated by the payor to participate in TIN matching on behalf of the payor.

Special Analyses

It has been determined that this Treasury decision is not a significant regulatory action as defined in Executive Order 12866. Therefore, a regulatory assessment is not required. It also has been determined that section 553(b) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 5) does not apply to these regulations. For the applicability of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 6) refer to the Special Analyses section of the preamble to the cross-reference notice of proposed rulemaking published in the Proposed Rules section of this issue of the Federal Register. Pursuant to section 7805(f), the temporary regulations will be submitted to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration for comment on its impact on small business.

Drafting Information

The principal author of the regulations is Donna Welch, Office of Associate Chief Counsel (Procedure and Administration), Administrative Provisions and Judicial Practice Division. However, other personnel from the IRS and the Treasury Department participated in the development of the regulations.

In general, under a matching program, prior to filing information returns with respect to reportable payments as defined in section 3406(b)(1), a payor of those reportable payments who is entitled to participate in the matching program may contact the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) with respect to the TIN furnished by a payee who has received or is likely to receive a reportable payment. [AG Order No. 2650-2003]

Organization of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives

AGENCY: Department of Justice.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Homeland Security Act of 2002 transferred certain law enforcement and regulatory functions of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms from the Department of the Treasury to the Department of Justice and changed its name to the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives. This rule delegates specific authorities to that Bureau and incorporates it into the structure of the Department of Justice.

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 24, 2003.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Stuart Frisch, General Counsel, Justice Management Division, Rm. 520, National Place Building, United States Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; Telephone (202) 514-3452; FAX: (202) 514-4317.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Introduction

The Homeland Security Act of 2002, Pub. L. 107-296, title XI, 116 Stat. 2135 (Nov. 25, 2002) ("Act"), transferred certain law enforcement and regulatory authorities, functions, personnel, and assets of the former Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms of the Department of the Treasury to the Department of Justice as the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives. The Act also created new authorities, particularly in the area of regulation of explosives.

The Attorney General (with minimal exceptions not relevant here) is vested with the responsibility for the management of all functions of the Department of Justice and may delegate those functions to officials of the Department as he deems appropriate. 28 U.S.C. 509, 510. In implementing his statutory responsibilities for the Act and the administration of the Department, the Attorney General is issuing these regulations for the internal management of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives.

This final rule creates a new subpart of title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), part 0, regarding the establishment, functions, and management of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives. This rule also makes minor technical amendments to other Department regulations relating to authority for processing petitions for remission or mitigation of forfeitures, compromise of claims, maintenance of reading rooms, program fraud civil remedies, and ethical standards. These changes align the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives with other law enforcement components within the Department of Justice.

Transfer Authority in the Homeland Security Act of 2002

On November 25, 2002, the President signed into law the Homeland Security Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-296, 116 Stat. 2135 (2002). Section 1111 of the Act establishes in the Department the "Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives," and generally transfers most of the non-tax authorities, functions, personnel and assets of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms of the Department of the Treasury to the Department of Justice. This transfer is effective on January 24, 2003.

Under the Homeland Security Act of 2002, the Department of the Treasury retains authority over certain tax provisions relating to alcohol, tobacco and firearms, as well as the Federal Alcohol Administration Act. Those functions will be handled by the new Tax and Trade Bureau in the Department of the Treasury.

A. Part 0—Organization of the Department of Justice

The amendment to 28 CFR 0.1 adds the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives to the list of bureaus within the Department of Justice.

This rule redesignates subpart W as subpart W-1, and creates a new subpart W for the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives, consistent with the subparts that delegate authority to other bureaus of the Department.

New 28 CFR 0.130 delegates to the Director of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives ("Director"), subject to the direction of the Attorney General and Deputy Attorney General, responsibilities with respect to the investigation and enforcement of federal firearms, explosives, and arson laws, as well as the provisions of title 18, United States Code, with respect to violations involving alcohol and tobacco. Paragraphs (a) through (c) reflect the authorities that were previously exercised by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms within the Department of the Treasury and which were transferred in the Homeland Security Act of 2002, plus new authority enacted in the Safe Explosives Act, title XI, subtitle C, of the Homeland Security Act of 2002. Paragraph (d) reflects the management of new authority which may be delegated by the Attorney General in the future as authorized by section 1111(b)(3) of the Homeland Security Act of 2002.

Section 0.131 delegates to the Director specific functions previously performed by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, including the operation of laboratories, the National Explosives Licensing Center, the National Firearms Licensing Center, the National Firearms Registration and Transfer Record, the Arson and Explosives National Repository, the National Tracing Center, and a new Explosives Training and Research Facility, as well as specific functions performed by law enforcement bureaus of the Department of Justice.

Section 0.132 delegates to the Director authority to settle certain claims against the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives and its personnel within certain applicable monetary limits.

Section 0.133 of this rule provides administrative continuity in the transfer of functions from the Department of the Treasury to the Department of Justice by adopting and carrying forward certain extant regulations specifically relating to the authorities transferred to the Department of Justice. In a separate rule, these regulations are being recodified in a new chapter II of 27 CFR.

There are other regulations issued by the Department of the Treasury, or the former Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, that apply to both the authorities that were transferred to the Department of Justice and the authorities that were retained in the Department of the Treasury pursuant to the Homeland Security Act. For example, the regulations in 27 CFR part 70 contain general rules on procedure and administration. Many of these rules apply only to taxes collected by the Department of the Treasury. However, some of these rules also apply to administration of the National Firearms Act, which will be enforced by the Department of Justice. Paragraph (a)(2) continues the application of these regulations to the operations of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives until amended, or otherwise revised.

Accordingly, this section provides that, pending the issuance of new regulations or other changes in authority, all other regulations issued by the Department of the Treasury or the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms prior to January 24, 2003, shall continue to apply to the operations of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives, to the extent that such regulations apply to the authorities or functions transferred to the Department of Justice pursuant to the Homeland Security Act of 2002 or the regulations in this part, unless the application of such regulations would be inconsistent with statutes or regulations applicable to the Department of Justice.

Similarly, paragraph (a)(3) continues the orders and other legal authorities related to the former Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms. Paragraph (a)(4) alters the effect of the reference to appropriate entities and officials of the Department of the Treasury before the transfer to refer to the corresponding entities and officials of the Department of Justice after the transfer. Finally, paragraph (b) makes four exceptions for specific matters relating to forfeitures. In the future, when it is clear that pending proceedings no longer depend on such pre-existing authority, the Department will make the necessary adjustments to change the nomenclature in the regulations transferred to chapter II, title 27, and to eliminate obsolete regulations.

B. Conforming Authorities in Other Parts of 28 CFR

Additionally, a number of conforming changes are required in other parts in 28 CFR to incorporate the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives into the Department of Justice. These changes affect only the internal administration of the Department.

Amendments to part 9 apply the procedures used by the Department of Justice for remission and mitigation of forfeiture to the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives. 27 CFR part 72 will not be applicable to the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives after transfer to the Department of Justice.

Similarly, under the Department of Justice authority in amendments to part 11, the Director is delegated authority to compromise claims under the Debt Collection Act, 31 U.S.C. 3711. This replaces authority previously exercised within the Department of the Treasury under 31 CFR part 5.

Amendments to part 16 establish the various Freedom of Information Act functions, 5 U.S.C. 552, within the Department for the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives. These provisions replace Department of the Treasury regulations. 31 CFR part 1.

The Chief Counsel of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives is designated as the reviewing official under the Program Fraud Civil Remedies Act of 1986, 31 U.S.C. 3801 et seq. Finally, in 28 CFR part 77 attorneys in the office of the Chief Counsel of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives are brought under the ethical standards applicable to Department of Justice attorneys under 28 U.S.C. 530B.

Finally, the Department notes that all Department of Justice regulations and policy applicable to its Bureaus and employees, such as the policy statements of 28 CFR part 50, automatically become applicable to the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives through this transfer of functions under the Act.

Administrative Procedure Act

This rule relates to matters of agency management and personnel and, therefore, is exempt from the usual requirements of prior notice and comment and a 30-day delay in effective date. See 5 U.S.C. 553(a)(2) and (d). The rule only continues extant provisions of the regulations of the former Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms and makes appropriate changes to reflect the transfer certain law enforcement functions of the former Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms to the Department of Justice.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Attorney General, in accordance with the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 605(b), has reviewed this rule and, by approving it, certifies that it will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities because it pertains to personnel and administrative matters affecting the Department. Further, a Regulatory Flexibility Analysis is not required for this final rule because the Department was not required to publish a general notice of proposed rulemaking for this matter.

Executive Order 12866

This rule has been drafted and reviewed in accordance with Executive Order 12866, Regulatory Planning and Review, section 1(b), Principles of Regulation. This rule is limited to agency organization, management and personnel matters as described by Executive Order 12866, § 3(d)(3) and, therefore, is not a "regulation" or "rule" as defined by that Executive Order.

Executive Order 12988

This regulation meets the applicable standards set forth in sections 3(a) and 3(b)(2) of Executive Order 12988, Civil Justice Reform.

Executive Order 13132

This rule will not have substantial direct effects on the States, on the relationship between the national government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. Therefore, in accordance with Executive Order 13132, Federalism, the Department has determined that this rule does not have sufficient federalism implications to warrant the preparation of a federalism summary impact statement.

Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995

This rule will not result in the expenditure by State, local, and tribal governments, in the aggregate, or by the private sector, of $100 million or more in any one year, and it will not significantly or uniquely affect small governments. Therefore, no actions are necessary under the provisions of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995, 2 U.S.C. 1501 et seq.

Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996

This rule is not a major rule as defined by section 251 of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996 (SBREFA), 5 U.S.C. 804. This rule will not result in an annual effect on the economy of $100 million or more; a major increase in costs or prices; or significant adverse effects on competition, employment, investment, productivity, innovation, or the ability of United States-based enterprises to compete with foreign-based enterprises in domestic and export markets.

This action pertains to agency management, personnel, and organization and does not substantially affect the rights or obligations of non-agency parties. Accordingly, it is not a rule for purposes of the reporting requirement of 5 U.S.C. 801.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

28 CFR Part 16

[AAG/A Order No. 005–2003]

Privacy Act of 1974; Implementation

AGENCY: Department of Justice.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Department of Justice, Office of the Pardon Attorney (OPA), is exempting a Privacy Act system of records entitled “Executive Clemency Case Files/Executive Clemency Tracking System (JUSTICE/OPA–001)” from subsections (c)(3), (c)(4), (d)(1), (d)(2), (d)(3), (d)(4), and (e)(5) of the Privacy Act. Information in this system relates to the investigation and evaluation of applicants for executive clemency and case-related correspondence regarding such applicants and the clemency process. The exemptions are necessary to avoid interference with clemency investigations and decision-making, when such interference could impair the Department of Justice’s ability to provide candid recommendations to the President for his ultimate decisions on clemency matters, and to prevent unwarranted invasions of the personal privacy of third parties.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This final rule is effective January 31, 2003.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mary Cahill, (202) 307–1823.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On October 31, 2002 (67 FR 66348), a proposed rule was published in the Federal Register with an invitation to comment. No comments were received.

This order relates to individuals rather than small business entities. Nevertheless, pursuant to the requirements of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601–612, it is hereby stated that the order will not have “a significant impact on a substantial number of small entities.”

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Attorney General by 5 U.S.C. 552a, and delegated to me by Attorney General Order No. 793–78, 28 CFR Part 16 is amended as follows:

PART 16—[AMENDED]

1. The authority citation for Part 16 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 5 U.S.C. 301, 552, 552a, 552b(g), 553; 18 U.S.C. 4203(a)(1); 28 U.S.C. 509, 510, 534; 31 U.S.C. 3717, 9701.

2. Section 16.79 is revised to read as follows:

§ 16.79 Exemption of Pardon Attorney System.

(a) The following system of records is exempt from 5 U.S.C. 552a, subsections (c)(3), (c)(4), (d)(1), (d)(2), (d)(3), (d)(4), and (e)(5); Executive Clemency Case Files/Executive Clemency Tracking System (JUSTICE/OPA–001). These exemptions apply only to the extent that information in this system of records is subject to exemption pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(j)(2).

(b) Exemption from the particular subsections is justified for the following reasons:

(1) From subsection (c)(3) because:

(i) The purpose of the creation and maintenance of the Executive Clemency Case Files/Executive Clemency Tracking System (JUSTICE/OPA–001) is to enable the Justice Department to prepare reports and recommendations to the President for his ultimate decisions on clemency matters, which are committed to exclusive discretion of the President pursuant to Article II, Section 2, Clause 1 of the Constitution.

(ii) Release of the disclosure accounting, for disclosures pursuant to the routine uses published for this system, would permit the requester to obtain valuable information concerning the nature and scope of a clemency investigation, invade the right of candid and confidential communications among officials concerned with making recommendations to the President in clemency matters, and disclose the identity of persons who furnished information to the Government under an express or implied promise that their identities would be held in confidence.

(2) From subsection (c)(4) because the exemption from subsections (d)(1), (d)(2), (d)(3), and (d)(4) will make notification of disputes inapplicable.

(3) From subsections (d)(1), (d)(2), (d)(3), and (d)(4) is justified for the reasons stated in paragraph (b)(1) of this section.

(4) From subsection (e)(5) is justified for the reasons stated in paragraph (b)(1) of this section.

Dated: January 17, 2003.
